

Students who wish to appeal the grading of late work, beyond the standard grace period must complete this form. Additionally, students should upload supporting documents related to the late grade appeal through the Student Portal Document Center. Any communications with the instructor that demonstrate when and how the institutional policy was not upheld or a reasonable exception was not made due to extenuating circumstances, can be sent to Student.Affairs@CSUGlobal.edu. Late Grade appeals must be submitted no later than 90 days after the final grade in the course is posted or the grade earned will be considered final.

Directions: Submit a completed, signed form through the Student Portal

Questions? See uploading instructions in the Portal or contact your Student Success Counselor.

Appeals submitted without all required documentation will be regarded as incomplete and will be denied.

The burden of proof rests with the student to demonstrate an exception to the grading timeline is warranted and that arrangements could not have reasonably been made in advance, and are a result of extenuating circumstances. Please note: Discussion Forum posts are not eligible to be considered for a late submission and cannot be appealed.
